Thank you for downloading BLUBOX

You can use the free viewer straight away – there is no need to register!

If you would like to try the product completely FREE for 28 days please follow these simple steps:

It would be wise to save or print this email!

To install BLUBOX

1. Close all programs.
2. Run the install from the location you saved to by double clicking on the BLUBOX Setup icon.
3. Follow the on screen instructions.

BLUBOX is now installed and you can use the free viewer for life!

To register BLUBOX

1. Once installed open BLUBOX and select Help > About Blu Box... from the drop down list
– this will open the 'Licensing Details' screen
2. Hit the Register New License button and then the Yes button on the next dialogue box and this will open the 'Register' screen:

The image shows a software registration window titled "Register" for "BLU-BOX™". The window has a blue header bar with the title and a close button. Below the header, the "BLU-BOX™" logo is displayed on the left, and a stylized graphic of a blue key on the right. The main area is divided into four numbered steps, each with an icon and a text box for input.

- 1. Please enter a valid email address : (Icon: envelope). Text box: . Subtext: "Your serial number and license code will be sent to this email account."
- 2. Please enter the serial number to register : (Icon: key). Text box: . Subtext: "You must register a serial number . If you do not have one, please contact your distributor or reseller with instructions on obtaining a serial number"
- 3. Register the software using one of the following methods : (Icon: document with list).
  - ☒ Direct Registration:
  - ☐ Email RegistrationA large light blue box contains the text: "A registration will be performed over the web and results will be returned immediately. This requires an active internet connection." A button labeled "Direct Registration" is at the bottom right of this box.
- 4. Unlock the software with a serial number and license code : (Icon: key).
  - Serial Number :
  - License Code :A button labeled "Unlock Application" is to the right of the input fields.

At the bottom right of the window is a "Cancel" button.

3. Enter your email address in section 1 and the following license, bbbox-eval-0000-0000, will appear automatically in section 2 (if you have bought a full license or have been given one by your service provider please delete the 'eval' license and enter your new one in section 2)

4. Select the 'Direct Registration' method and hit the Direct Registration button (we recommended this method).

BLUBOX will be activated automatically and you are now ready to create and send BLUBOX archives.

If you are using the trial version, the software will automatically revert back to the FREE viewer after 28 days. You can continue to view and print from archives already created and receive new ones from friends and family.
